Pacific Life Re appoints new Underwriting Director, Europe

London (7th September 2016) – Pacific Life Re is pleased to announce the appointment of Alan Dott as Underwriting Director for its Europe business unit. Alan joins from Swiss Re and will be responsible for the leadership of the European underwriting team. He will also be closely involved in the management of the underwriting client relationships and audit programme. Alan is a well-known market figure and will be a great asset to the Pacific Life Re team.

Dott commented, "I am excited to be joining Pacific Life Re at a time when they are growing their proposition in the UK and Ireland. I look forward to working with the team and developing Pacific Life Re's underwriting services and expertise further."

Carl Padget, Head of Underwriting and Claims, Europe commented, "We are all really pleased that Alan is joining our team. He has a wealth of knowledge and experience to bring to the team and the company, which will enhance our underwriting proposition further. We now have a stronger team than ever, with 18 underwriting and claims experts in our London office. This latest appointment demonstrates our commitment to providing outstanding client support in the UK and Irish markets."
